

How to become a Maths Ambassador...

You must complete stage 1 and then stage 2

STAGE 1

TTRS:

Your Rock Status on TTRS needs to be:

At least a WANNABE (KS1)

At least an UNSIGNED ACT (Yrs. 3 and 4)

At least a ROCK STAR (Yrs. 5 and 6)

and...choose 5 activities from the list below:

Research a famous mathematician and record at least five facts in an interesting way

Create a maths poster for the STEM display board

Make a maths challenge for your class to solve

Tell Miss Bain a maths joke!

Create a puzzle/activity/challenge for Miss Bain to include on Twitter

Create your own maths song or recommend one to your class to help them with the topic you are working on

Play a maths game from the link below:

25 Fun Maths Games For Kids To Do At Home | Free Maths Activities \(thirdspacelearning.com\)

Take a photo of you playing it or find another way to show that you have played one of the games. Good Luck!

Share your completed activities with your teacher and class. Your teacher will then let Miss Bain know and she will meet with you to have a chat and to give you a Golden ticket.

STAGE 2

TTRS:

Your Rock Status on TTRS needs to be:

At least a GARAGE ROCKER (KS1)

At least a BREAKTHROUGH ARTIST (Yrs. 3 and 4)

At least a ROCK LEGEND (Yrs. 5 and 6)

and...choose 5 activities from the list below:

Create a maths competition for your class/year group or whole school

Make a maths quiz – be as creative as you can!

Make a list of at least 10 jobs that use maths and explain how

Create a video of your choice linked to maths

Create your own maths game, don't forget to include the rules!

Design a maths booklet to help others – you can choose which topic/s you want to include

Interview some of your friends /family and find out their views on maths – are they the same as yours?

Share your completed activities with your teacher and class. Your teacher will then let Miss Bain know and she will meet with you to have a chat and to give you your certificate and maths ambassador badge.

Congratulations!
